THE CITY.

John Schafer, the grocer, is ill.

Allen B. Reed leaves to-night for Chicago.

J. F. Rogers was at Washburn over Sunday.

The city board promises new music in the near future.

The Dime show will pitch its tent on East Berry street Wednesday.

Twenty-five German republicans in the Washburn shop will vote for Cleveland.

The Apollo club went fishing yesterday but caught nothing but "climpy reptiles."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hazell are at home from a pleasant sojourn at Cedar Beach.

The Platt Denischer, Frim, Bousler, Yarns, will emigrate to Rome City, August 8.

The "Wild West" opens at the Fair Grounds next Wednesday. The show is said to be great.

There were numerous drinks about town Saturday night and many were about yesterday morning.

The new addition to the French brewery is ready for the roof and will look quite handsome when finished.

Harry G. Olds, the inspector, is at St. Louis. His traveling representative, J. H. Wilder, is at New York City.

The cigar makers played a picked nine at League park yesterday. Elsewhere about the city a dozen clubs were cracking the sphere.

William Conroy, a pauper, came here Saturday from Peru. He is dying with consumption and was sent on east by Trustee Gaffney.

The Tivoli garden did a thriving business yesterday and everything was orderly. Chief Troutman is detailed there next Sunday now.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. W. Meyer, of St. Louis, were in the city yesterday, the guests of J. F. William Meyer and family, on West Wayne street.

There was a fight in John Kelly's saloon on Columbia street Saturday night and one fellow had his hand sliced with a knife. The police made no arrests.

Shipwrecked travelers, including an army all on the road to canvas for the harvest and fall trade. Four hundred sample trunks left the city since Saturday night.

Hon. R. C. Bell, Judge W. G. Colerick and Hon. Henry Colerick have returned from Chicago and will speak at the ratification meeting to-morrow night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lillie, Jr., Miss Cassie Humphrey and Miss Clara Fleming leave the 29th for a tour of the lakes. They will visit Duluth and other points before returning.

Saturday night Lieut. Frank Wilkins found an insane woman on Court street and Captain Dehl sent her to a boarding house on Barr street. She evidently escaped from some asylum.

Fred Neale is no longer chief mechanic at League park, but now works at Stony Point for the Nickel Plate company. Fred comes here every Sunday to play ball and is dubbed the Battleground of Fort Wayne.

Miss Eliza Nestle, known professionally as "Fairy Queen," is in the city with her parents. Miss Nestle has been with a comic opera company of migrants in the west. Mr. Charles Nestle is still with the show.

The turtles and eels in the Maumee river are all dead and the Wile has been expelled from the Spittoon club because of it. The other day Isaac bathed in the stream, but, of course, it is not said that he killed the inhabitants of the water. Mr. Wile is at Portland to-day.

Col. Joseph A. Walden, of Center, Ala., is in the city, the guest of Hon. Robert C. Bell. Mr. Walden was a delegate to the democratic convention, and is also an attorney in the case of Beverly C. Bass, which comes up in September. Mr. Walden came to the convention a McDonald man.

The city council meets to-night to give the people of Fort Wayne a water supply. On the present system over $300,000 has been expended and to-day the city has not enough water to last a week if the dry weather continues. Two propositions will come up in the council to-night. One is to lay pipes to the St. Joe river at a cost of $60,000 and the other is to purchase the canal for $15,000, getting water from the St. Joe river five miles above the city.

Last Saturday evening about thirty-five citizens met at the Center house for the purpose of organizing a new building and loan association. Charles Barner was chosen chairman and John H. Pranger secretary. The capital stock has been fixed at $100,000, which will be divided into shares of $200. A committee consisting of John Wasserschlag, George Matosh, Christ Bohn, John Pranger and Charles Barner were appointed to draft a constitution. The next meeting will be held two weeks from to-night.

County Commissioner Hartman is in the city.

Andy Glutting says Cleveland is a "mess."

The pay car of the Grand Rapids and Indiana, paid here to-day.

Louis Schroeder, the druggist, will return from Chicago this evening.

The employees of Olds' wagon and wheel works will be paid to-morrow.

Wabash engine 1,077 left the shops to-day for Andrews, having been repaired.

Dr. George T. Breubach is able to attend to his professional business again.

The Arion Singing society had a basket picnic at the east end brewery yesterday.

The funeral of the child of Ed. Monok occurred yesterday and was very largely attended.

The bicycle club ran to Decatur yesterday. The ride was quite pleasant over the wheel.

Dr. Metcalf is still after offenders and went out on Wayne street to-day to suppress a nuisance.

The child of E. J. Heiney was buried this morning in the Catholic cemetery. The funeral was quite large.

Clark & Williams will open at the Academy, July 28, in the "Pullman Porters." The show is of the dime museum variety.

John Mohr, Jr., and a pleasant party of ladies and gentlemen picniced on the banks of the St. Joe river yesterday. They went up on the steamer "Amelia."

The Forty-seventh and Thirty-fourth regiments of Indiana Volunteer infantry will hold their second annual reunion at Huntington, on Wednesday, August 20.

This morning a tramp stole an $8 pair of boots from a shop on Barr street, opposite the city hall. The proprietor gave chase and compelled the vag to drop the leather.

Harry Maroney, the Columbia street blacksmith, used to shoe Grover Cleveland's horses at Buffalo, and although a life-long republican, proposes to vote for the democratic nominee.

The water consumers now number 1,184. The water runs are now due and final notices have been served on all delinquents, who will have to settle this week or have their supply shut off.

Squire Hays, of Lafayette township, accompanied by his brother, Wm. O. Hays, and Reuben Shindler, of Spencerville, Ohio, who are his guests, were in the city to-day and called on Tan Rawnitz.

A building permit has been granted to Charles Pearson to erect a one-story brick house in Rockhill's second addition, to cost $400, and also one to J. C. Matosh to put up a one-story frame house, on lot 115 Lesalle's addition, to cost $500.

Yesterday Marshal Meyer arrested a "sway female" at the St. Mary's river. She was conveyed to the jail in Councilman Michael's buggy. Mr. Michael also carted a drunk to the cooler, and Marshal Meyer thinks of engaging his wagon for patrol duty.

The city papers have at last discovered that Mallen, one of the Margenthien burglars, is in jail at Chicago, and make much of the fact that Sheriff Schiefer has started after him. The Sentinel published the information a month ago and to its readers the case is familiar.

The democracy of Huntington held a preliminary and spontaneous jollification last Saturday evening, which turned out to be an immense affair. Preparations are being made for the grandest ratification meeting ever held in Huntington county, next Saturday evening.

A cowardly assault was made yesterday, on Calhoun street, near the railroad, by a one-handed ruffian, who has frequently figured in the police court for numerous petty offenses, upon an innocent and defenseless looking rustic gentleman, who was quietly strolling on the street musing nobody. He was staggered from his feet and his hat knocked off, which he picked up, and then walked away, entirely misunderstanding the cause of the attack.

The Denville Commercial says that Roadmaster Perry has returned from a trip over the Wabash, between Decatur and Toledo. He says that the bridges and culverts between Decatur and Lafayette are running full and have been seriously threatened by the high water, but that the danger of washouts has passed. The rain which fell between Belmont and Lafayette was the heaviest he had ever seen in Illinois. The water came down in sheets, and after thirty minutes the face of the country was covered.

Seven years ago to-morrow Tom Mills, the Wabash machinist, signed the pledge at the Academy of Music when Busk and Reddick were conducting a meeting. Tom was a victim of liquor then and slept offener in the cooler than at home, but after signing the pledge he braced up and is now of the finest gentlemen in the city. There are others here who were as vicious in their fight over the vicious appetite and have never touched a drop of liquor since. Councilman Kennell and Tom Kavanaugh are among them.

THE AUGUST ENCAMPMENT.

Meeting of the Promoters of the Northern Indiana Reunion of Soldiers—New Committee Appointed and Old Committee Rescinded.

Last Saturday night a meeting of the promoters of the August encampment of Northern Indiana veterans was held and further arrangements for the grand occasion perfected. Col. R. S. Robertson, Hon. Robert Stratton and Colonel O. A. Zollinger were appointed a committee to invite the attendance of Generals Sherman and Rosecrans and Governors Hoard and Porter. Captain F. F. Bolts, Captain C. Helter and Lieut. James E. Graham were appointed a committee on industrial parade. Capt. S. L. Lewis and James Harper were placed in charge of the subscription department and will solicit funds and provisions. John Otto, of Auburn, was made chief of artillery and Quartermaster F. H. Barnard was instructed to request the adjutant general of Indiana to make a requisition on the war department for tents.

The following list of the permanent committees has been revised and is the only official list published:

SUNDAY DINNERS.

The Army at Public Court Quite Eloquent and Amusing—Gay Females in the Cooler With a Few Drinks.

When Mayor Zollinger opened police court this morning Captain Dehl stepped up to the desk and deposited a nice roll of greenbacks. The money was put up by a well known clothing store clerk and another young man well known, whose relatives would be injured by the publication of their names. The youths were with Mary Baker and Nellie Shoff, on Columbia street, when Officer Ryan, raked them in. The girls were looked up all night, notwithstanding they were pretty gay and had considerable jewelry about their persons. The quartet hustled ball this morning and were released. Eddie Bennett was also jugged, but gave $15 bail and sauntered out to capture other suckers. Fred Grabel, Fred Johnson, Jake Siebolt and George Wilding answered "yes" to the charge of intoxication and marched to jail two abreast to hit stones in Mr. Updigger's geological garden. Nice fees were pocketed by the officers and the state school fund was enriched.

AN INVENTOR GOES.

Wm. Gause Resigns as Manager of the Agricultural Works and Will Locate in Chicago—His Invention to be Operated Here.

Saturday, William Gause, the well-known inventor, resigned as manager of the Gause Agricultural works, because of a disagreement with the directors of the institution. Mr. Gause is the inventor of the Gause mower, a machine of much local celebrity, which did good work in the harvest fields here last season and is now ready for service again. Mr. Gause cannot resist the lure of the Fort Wayne people to make the tower, and they will continue to manufacture and perfect all its arrangements. Mr. Gause will go to Chicago and probably enter the service of the McCormick people. Mrs. Gause is the temperance editress of the News and will soon relinquish her position.

Death of Mrs. James Graham.

The short but severe illness of Mr. James Graham terminated yesterday in his death at 4 o'clock p. m. Yesterday morning he suffered intense pain and left his bed so terrible was his agony.

James Graham was born in Chester county, Pennsylvania, and was aged fifty-seven years. He came to Fort Wayne in 1850, and has been for thirty-two years in the service of the Pennsylvania company. Two years of this period were spent in firing and the remaining thirty in charge of an engine. Mr. Graham ran the first engine into Chicago from this city over the Pittsburg road. Prior to coming to Fort Wayne Mr. Graham was a canal boatman between Pittsburg and Philadelphia. Injuries received in a collision near Chicago about a year ago were the indirect cause of his death. The deceased was twice married, first to a Pittsburg lady and secondly, at Mansfield, Ohio, to the lady who survives him. By his first wife there is a surviving son, George E. Graham, and the present Mrs. Graham is the mother of Mrs. Annie May Rouscup.

The president of the Cambridge, Mass., Fire Ins. Co., recommends Hood's Sarsaparilla as a building up and strengthening remedy.
